WILDING (PG)
David Allen, UK 2023, 75mins

Showing us how to heal a landscape against all odds, this documentary, based on Isabella Tree's best-selling book, follows a young couple who bet on nature for the future of their failing, 400 yr-old estate. Battling tradition to place the fate of their farm in the hands of nature, they rip down the fences, setting the land back to the wild and entrusting its recovery to a motley mix of animals both tame and wild. It is the beginning of a grand experiment that will become one of the most significant rewildings in Europe and beyond. There will be a recorded Q&A on 7th & 8th July, filmed at the estate.

6th, 7th, 13th & 14th July

ROME OPEN CITY (12A)
Roberto Rossellini, IT 1945, 103mins, subs

A landmark of Italian neorealism, this portrait of life under Nazi occupation remains remarkable for its immediacy and power. Made in extraordinarily difficult circumstances, immediately after the liberation of Rome, the film follows Manfredi, a partisan leader, attempting to evade the Gestapo by enlisting the help of Pina and Don Pietro, the priest due to oversee Pina's marriage. Shot on the ravaged streets of the city, and brought to life in a new 4K restoration, this is a true classic that has inspired and influenced countless filmmakers.

10th & 11th July
LA CHIMERA (15)
Alice Rohrwacher, Italy 2024, 131mins, subtitles

Set in the former Etruscan landscape of rural Italy, Arthur (Josh O'Connor) is a renegade British archaeologist, seemingly cut adrift in the world. His skills are put to use by a local ragtag group of graverobbers, hunting for ancient tombs filled with priceless artefacts, while Arthur uses the digs to reconnect to a lost love. With gorgeous cinematography and a touch of Fellini, this is a rich, magical film from the director of Happy as Lazzaro.

10th & 12th July
KIND HEARTS AND CORONETS (PG)
Robert Hamer, UK 1949, 101mins

Alongside The Lavender Hill Mob as one of the finest Ealing comedies, this is a sparkling 4K restoration with Alec Guinness having loads of fun in an incredible eight different roles. Dennis Price plays a debonair yet impoverished son whose mother was disinherited by her noble family for marrying an Italian. When they refuse to let her be buried at the estate, he hatches a plan to become the tenth Duke of Chalfont himself - by bumping off the eight successors who stand in his way. A wonderful class satire with razor-sharp humour that hasn't aged a day.

12th – 17th & 19th July
KINDS OF KINDNESS (18)
Yorgos Lanthimos, USA 2024, AD, 165mins

Going back to his earlier filmmaking roots, Yorgos Lanthimos' new film is stylish, challenging and absolutely unique.

THE COMMANDANT'S SHADOW (12A)
Daniela Volker, UK/USA 2024, 103m, subs

'The Zone of Interest' dramatized the life of Auschwitz' commander Rudolf Hoss, who lived with his family next door to the camp. This documentary follows Hans Hoss, his 87 yr-old son, who spent his childhood growing up in that house. While he enjoyed a 'normal' childhood, next door Anita Lasker-Wallfisch was fighting for her life. This is the story of Hans' own recollections, how he dealt with the truth, and, at the heart of the film, the moment where he meets Anita, an Auschwitz survivor, in her own home. A powerful and moving piece of history.
