Rossini: Petite Messe Solennelle

with Sinfonia Cambrensis

Arweinydd | Conductor – David Russell Hulme

Ionawr 24 January 7:30pm

Cyfansoddodd Rossini ei Offeren dros dri degawd ar ôl ei opera olaf. Cyfeiriodd at y gwaith annisgwyl hwn yn hwyr yn ei fywyd fel 'pechod fy henaint'. Nid oedd amser, fodd bynnag, wedi pylu ei ddisgleirdeb cerddorol - na'i ffraethineb. Er gwaethaf teitl y darn, nid yw'r Petite Messe Solennelle yn fach neu'n ddwys! Mae'n ddarn disglair, cyffrous, sy'n arddangos ysgrifennu corawl gwych a dawn operatig ddigyffelyb Rossini.

Rossini composed his Mass over three decades after his final opera. 'A sin of my old age,' he called this unexpected product of his twilight years. Time, though, had not dulled his musical brilliance - nor his wit. Despite its title, the Petite Messe Solennelle is neither petite nor solemn! It is a radiant, thrilling piece, showcasing great choral writing and Rossini's inimitable operatic flair.

Stan Tracey's Under Milk Wood is hailed as a landmark of British jazz and the pianist-composer's defining work. Mae Macbeth gan Flabbergast yn cyfuno dull trylwyr a pharchus o drin testun ac adrodd straeon i ddod â dehongliad hudolus o drasiedi Shakespeare yn fyw.

Mae pypedwaith, clown, ensemble, theatr gorfforol, a cherddoriaeth fyw gyffrous yn cyfuno mewn dehongliad pwerus. Gyda set syml ac ensemble clos o actorion, mae'r perfformiad hwn yn amlygiad tywyll a theimladwy o hanfod y gwaith a'r themâu sylfaenol, gan dynnu sylw at y gyffelybiaeth â chymdeithas fodern.

Flabbergast's Macbeth fuses a rigorous and respectful approach to text and storytelling to bring a magical interpretation of Shakespeare's tragedy to life.

Puppetry, clown, ensemble, physical theatre, and exhilarating live music combine in a powerful interpretation. A stripped-back set and a tight-knit ensemble of actors, this performance is a dark and visceral manifestation of the work's essence and underlying themes, drawing out the parallels with modern society.

The Tenant of Wildfell Hall

20 & 21 Mawrth / March
2pm & 7pm

Addaswyd ar gyfer y llwyfan gan Lucy Gough.

Pwy yw'r ddynes ddirgel a symudodd i Neuadd Wildfell yn ddiweddar? Mae'r Neuadd yn ddiarffordd. Mae hi'n artist ac yn fenyw sengl gyda phlentyn; 'roedd y ddau gyflwr hwn yn cael eu diystyru gan gymdeithas y 19eg ganrif. Wrth i'r dirgelwch ddatblygu, datgelir bywyd o frwydr a dewrder. Mae'r ddrama wedi'i fframio gan resymau Anne Brontë dros ysgrifennu'r nofel ffeministaidd onest hon.

Adapted for the stage by Lucy Gough.

Who is the mystery woman who recently moved into Wildfell Hall? The Hall is isolated. She is an artist and a single woman with a child; both were frowned upon in 19th-century society. As the mystery unfolds, a life of struggle and courage is revealed. The play is framed by Anne Brontë's reasons for writing this honest feminist novel.

We're Not Getting a Dog

12 Chwefror / February 7:45pm

Mae hon yn stori am ysgrifennu llythyrau goddefol-ymosodol, glanhau'n gynnar yn y bore a gwneud tŷ yn gartref. Mae'n ymwneud â'r rhai sy'n byw, yn chwerthin ac yn caru, llathenni oddi wrthym, ond mewn gwirionedd, nad ydym yn eu hadnabod o gwbl.

Mae cwpl yn rhedeg trwy'r glaw i ddal bws.

Mae dyn yn syllu ar sgrîn wag gliniadur mewn anobaith.

Mae dynes yn agor amlen ac yn dod o hyd i lun y tu mewn.

Tŷ newydd ar stryd newydd gyda chymdogion newydd.

This is a story about passive-aggressive letter writing, early morning jet washing and making a house a home. It's about those who live, laugh and love meters from us, but who really, we barely know at all.

A couple runs through the rain to catch a bus.

A man stares at a blank laptop screen in desperation.

A woman opens an envelope to find a photo inside.

A new house on a new street with new neighbours.

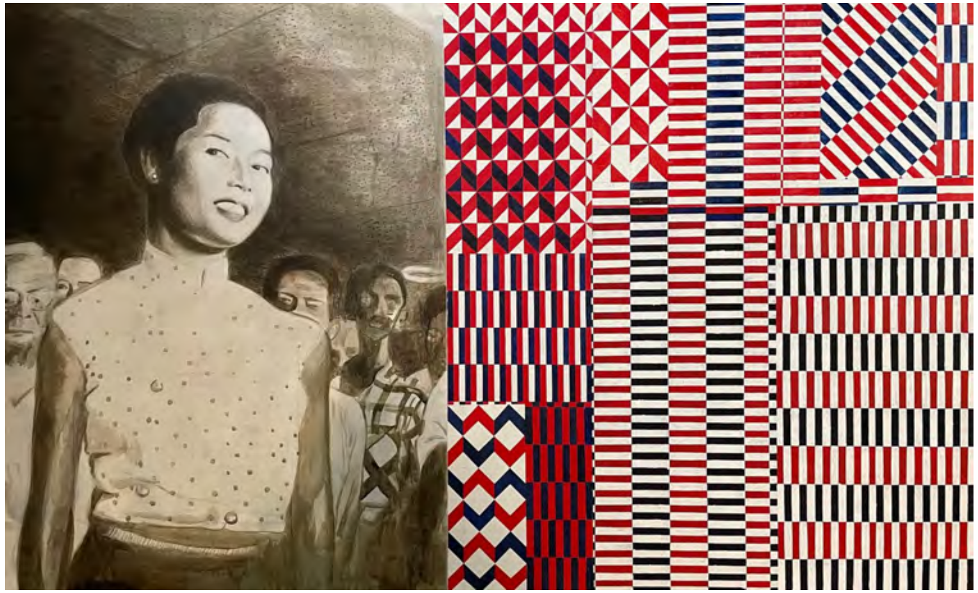
Yr arddangosfeydd solo mewn lleoliadau eraill ar gyfer AM11 yw: Sancintya Mohini Simpson yn Chapter, Caerdydd; Kameelah Janan Rasheed yn Oriel Gelf Glynn Vivian, Abertawe; a Jumana Emil Abboud ac Antonio Paucar ym Mostyn, Llandudno.

Cynhelir arddangosfa ar y cyd gyda'r chwech artist yn Amgueddfa Genedlaethol Caerdydd, hwb canoloig y prosiect. Bydd hon yn adlewyrchu themâu sylfaenol ymarfer pob artist a'r arddangosfa yn ei chyfanrwydd - straeon sy'n seiliedig ar draddodiadau, mudo, dadleoli ac alltudiaeth trwy hanesion gwladychiaeth, gwrthdaro a'r etifeddiaethau amgylcheddol a ddaw yn eu sgil.

Cyhoeddir enillydd y Wobr Artes Mundi 11 gwerth £40,000 a derbynnydd Gwobr Bryniad Artes Mundi Ymddiriedolaeth Derek Williams ym mis Ionawr 2026 yn ystod yr arddangosfa.



We're delighted to participate in Artes Mundi 11, the UK's leading biennial exhibition and international contemporary art prize presenting new and existing work from six of the world's most exciting international contemporary artists. This marks our first involvement, joining with four other major contemporary art venues across Wales.

At Aberystwyth, we will present solo exhibitions by two of the six shortlisted artists, Anawana Haloba and Sawangwongse Yawnghwe, comprising a selection of new and existing works of sculptural installation with sound and large-scale paintings respectively.

Solo exhibitions at other partner venues for AM11 are: Sancintya Mohini Simpson at Chapter, Cardiff; Kameelah Janan Rasheed at Glynn Vivian Art Gallery, Swansea; and Jumana Emil Abboud and Antonio Paucar at Mostyn, Llandudno.

A group exhibition featuring all six artists will take place at National Museum Cardiff, the central hub of the project. This will reflect the core themes of each artist's practice and the exhibition as a whole - stories centred on traditions, migration, displacement and exile through histories of colonialism, conflict and consequent environmental legacies.

The winner of the £40,000 Artes Mundi 11 Prize and the recipient of the Derek Williams Trust Artes Mundi Purchase Prize will be announced in January 2026 during the exhibition.

Hanesion Iu Ifor Davies | The Many Stories of Ivor Davies

Mawrth 23 - Awst 25 | March 23 - August 25

Mae'r artist, hanesydd celf ac actifydd Cymreig Ivor Davies yn un o ffigurau mwyaf blaenllaw celf gyfoes Cymru. Mae'r arddangosfa hon yn ystyried ei yrfa sy'n ymestyn dros 90 mlynedd, gan gyflwyno cwestiynau o arwyddocâd moesegol, ysbrydol a chenedlaethol.

Mae amrywiaeth enfawr o genres, cyfryngau a gwrthrychau yn nodweddu ei waith: gwaith haniaethol, portreadau, tirluniau, bywyd llonydd, ffilmiau o theatr ffrwydrol ddinistriol / greadigol / newidiadol, a thraethu unigryw ar bynciau sy'n cynnwys y Mabinogion, tywysogion Cymru, llenyddiaeth, seintiau, heriau hanesyddol ac arwyr gwleidyddol Cymru.

Welsh artist, art historian and activist Ivor Davies is one of the foremost figures in contemporary Welsh art. This exhibition explores his career that spans 90 years, presenting questions of ethical, spiritual and national significance.

A huge variety of genres, media and subjects characterise his work: abstracts, portraits, landscapes, still-lifes, films of explosive, destructive/creative/mutational theatre, and a unique narration of subjects that include the Mabinogion, Welsh princes, literature, saints, and the historical challenges and political heroes of Wales.

Ar Lan y Môr | On the Seashore

Tachwedd 10 - Chwefror 8 | November 10 - February 8

Cydweithrediad rhwng Gwneuthurwr Printiau Aberystwyth ag Athrofa'r Gwyddorau Biolegol, Amgylcheddol a Gwledig (IBERS), mae'r arddangosfa yma yn trafod thema arfordir canolbarth Cymru, gyda'r ffocws ar wymon. Mae'r ddau bartner yn gymdogion agos ar gampws Prifysgol Abersytwyth ac yn awyddus i ddatblygu'r rhyngwyneb rhwng celf a gwyddoniaeth. Yn tynnu ar arbenigedd a gwybodaeth academyddion, gwyddonwyr ymchwil, haneswyr ac artistiaid ynghyd â'n cymuned leol, bydd yr arddangosfa yma yn cyd-fynd â Chynhadledd Cymdeithas Wymonegol Prydain a gynhelir yn Aberystwyth yn gynnar yn 2026.

A collaboration between Aberystwyth Printmakers and Institute of Biological, Environmental & Rural Sciences at Aberystwyth University (IBERS), this exhibition explores the theme of the mid Wales coast, with a focus on seaweed. Both partners are close neighbours on the Aberystwyth University campus and are keen to develop the interface between art and science. Drawing on the expertise and knowledge of academics, research scientists, historians and artists together with our local community, the exhibition will coincide with the British Psychological Society Conference to be held in Aberystwyth early in 2026.

Sam Vicary & Catrin Llwyd

Bydoedd Cymysg | Blended Worlds

Chwefror 24 - Mai 24 | February 24 - May 24

Dau artist sydd yn archwilio tirlun trwy baent, gan dynnu'n ddwfn o arsyllu, atgofion a'r profiad o fod yn y dirwedd, a cherdded drwyddi. Mae Sam Vicary yn cyflwyno safbwyntiau lluosog gan edrych allan yn aml trwy ffenest ar y dirwedd y tu hwnt, tra bod Catrin Llwyd yn creu profiad o weld y dirwedd a'u hadeiladau o'r tu allan, gan edrych tu mewn. Mae'r ddwy yn creu gweithiau tawel, myfyriol sydd yn cyfleu ennyd penodol - adegau pan mae'r meddwl yn dawel ac mae'r byd ynymddangos yn llonydd am eiliad.

Two artists that explore landscape through paint, drawing deeply from observation, memory and the experience of being in, and walking through the landscape. Sam Vicary presents multiple viewpoints often looking outwards through a window onto the landscape beyond, while Catrin Llwyd creates an experience that looks at the landscape and its dwellings from the outside, looking inwards. Both create quiet contemplative works that capture suspended moments - times when thought settles and the world seems momentarily still.

Marian Haf & Charlotte Baxter

Tachwedd 28 - Chwefror 1 |
November 28 - Feburary 1

Mae Marian yn gweithio o'r stiwdio ardd yn ei chornel enedigol o Geredigion, gan gymryd ysbrydoliaeth o'i bywyd yng nghefn gwlad Gorllewin Cymru, gan gyfleu perthyn sy'n gyfarwydd i bawb, yr awydd cyffredin i drysori'r dyfodol wrth feithrin y gorffennol.

Mae Charlotte yn cael ei denu at y byd naturiol o'i chwmpas a natur ddeinamig y dirwedd, yn enwedig y mannau lle mae dŵr yn cwrdd â'r tir,, gan ganfod y gwrthgyferbyniad rhwng y ddwy elfen hyn yn hynod ddiddorol.

Marian works from the garden studio in her native corner of Ceredigion, taking inspiration from her life in rural West Wales, conveying a belonging which is familiar to all, the common desire to cherish the future whilst nourishing the past.

Charlotte is drawn to the natural world around her and the dynamic nature of the landscape, in particular the places where water meets the land, finding the contrast between these two elements deeply captivating.

Jess Roberts

Robin Hood

Tachwedd 25 - Ionawr 1 |
November 25 - January 1

Wedi'i ysbrydoli gan hanes amlhennig Robin Hood, mae'r ffenestr piazza hon yn trawsnewid darnau o'r stori yn arddangosfa ddewr a dramatig. Gan ddibynnu ar profiad Jess mewn dylunio setiau, mae hi wedi gweu lliw, arddangosfa, a stori gyda'i gilydd i dalu heintiau ysbryd Sherwood. Mae'r olygfa llachar hon yn gwahodd cynulleidfaoedd i fynd i fyd y troseddwyr ac anturiaethau – ac i drefnu eu lle yn y stori.

Inspired by the timeless legend of Robin Hood, this piazza window transforms fragments of the tale into a bold and dramatic display. Drawing on Jess's experience in set design, she has woven together colour, spectacle, and story to capture the spirit of Sherwood. This vibrant scene beckons audiences to enter the world of outlaws and adventure – and book their place in the story.

Addoliad Dŵr | Water Worship

Chwefror 7 - Ebrill 3 |
February 7 - April 3

Yn cael ei ddefnyddio'n gyffredinol mewn defodau crefyddol ac ysbrydol fel modd o buro, iacháu ac adnewyddu, 'roedd y weithred o addoli dŵr yn rhan o grefydd baganaidd ac fe'i hymgorfforwyd yng Nghristnogaeth. Mae'r darn cerfluniol gwydr lliw hwn yn dwyn i gof ffenestr eglwys, diferion dŵr, mapiau a ffurfiau afonydd Cymru o'r awyr. Gwnaethpwyd y gwaith hwn fel rhan o'r rhaglen adfer rhywogaethau ac ymgysylltu Natur am Byth! mewn cydweithrediad â 'Phen Llŷn a'r Sarnau' a'r Gymdeithas Gadwraeth Forol.

Generally used in religious and spiritual rituals as a means of purification, healing and renewal, water worship was part of pagan religion and was incorporated into Christianity. This stained glass sculptural piece evokes a church window, water drops, maps and the form of the Welsh rivers from the air. This work was made as part of 'Natur am Byth!' species recovery and engagement programme in collaboration with 'Pen Llŷn a'r Sarnau' and Marine Conservation Society.

Gosodwaith print ar raddfa fawr wedi'i gyfansoddi o recordiadau radio a ddaliwyd gan ddefnyddio platiau peirianedig fel antenâu. Mae'r gwaith yn ymestyn cyfres Tapestri Radio William, lle mae'n ceisio creu arteffactau materol o bontydd anfaterol cyfathrebu di-wifr. Yn y gwaith newydd hwn, mae'r platiau sydd wedi'u hysgythru'n ffotograffig yn cael eu dehongli'n brintiau cerfwedd a sgleiniau, gan gynhyrchu arwynebau lle mae signalau ac aflonyddiadau wedi'u mewnsgrifio'n faterol.

A large-scale print installation composed from radio recordings captured using machined plates as antennas. The work extends William's Radio Tapestry series, in which he seeks to create material artefacts of the immaterial bridges of wireless communication. In this new work, the photographically etched plates are translated into relief prints and burnishing's, producing surfaces where signals and disturbances are materially inscribed, producing surfaces where signals and disturbances are materially inscribed.

Yn y diwedd symudodd i Gymru i astudio yn Ysgol Gelf a Ddylunio Caerdydd (2015-18), lle graddiodd a sefydlodd ei ymarfer. Our Dance School follows the graded systems of the Royal Academy of Dance (RAD) for Ballet and the Imperial Society of Teachers of Dancing (ISTD) for Modern and Tap. Examinations are available and provide a valuable measure of progress, though they are entirely optional and accessible for most students. We also run non-exam dance sessions such as Commercial Fusion, Adult Ballet, Prime Time Tappers, Musical Theatre, and more. These fun, energetic classes are perfect for those who want to enjoy dancing without the pressure of formal assessments.

Our Stage School and Youth Theatre provide professional actor training in a fun, inclusive, and supportive environment. These classes help develop skills in acting, dancing, and singing. Members can put their talents into practice through studio sharings and main stage performances, with the option to take examinations through LAMDA or Trinity College London.
